

Bedtime Story For the Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE HATTER

By HOWARD R. GARIN

"H. Uncle Wiggily!" called Nurse Jane Furry Wussy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as Mr. Longears, the rabbit gentleman, started to hop out of his hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!"

"Well, what is it?" asked the bunny with a polite bow. "Do you want anything from the store?"

"Some carrot coffee, if you please," answered the muskrat lady. "When you finish your walk, and have had a nice adventure, bring home some coffee."

"I'll do it," promised Uncle Wiggily, and then, as he hopped along, over the fields and through the woods, he thought perhaps he had better buy the carrot coffee first.

"For," said he to himself, "I might have such a funny adventure that I'd forget all about what Nurse Jane told me."

Now you just wait and see what happens, if you please.

It did not take the bunny long to get the coffee, the muskrat lady gentleman who kept the store wrapping it up for him in a paper that had been twisted around a lollipop candy before him, and all of a sudden, he heard a voice saying:

"Well, I don't know what to do about it, that's all I never saw such trouble. The idea of wanting me to get ready for this time of day!"

"Ha! Trouble!" thought Uncle Wiggily. "This is where I come in. What is it you can't get ready for this time of day, and who are you?" asked the bunny, for he saw no one.

"Oh, it's you, is it?" called a voice, and out from under a mulberry bush stepped a little man, with such a large hat that it covered him from head to foot.

"Oh, excuse me," said Uncle Wiggily. "You are—"

"The Hatter! Exactly! You have guessed it," said the little man, opening a window which was cut in the side of his hat, and he looked out just opposite his face, which was inside so he could look out at the bunny gentleman.

"I'm the Hatter, from 'Alice in Wonderland,'" went on the little man. The bunny had a really pleasant fit, though he might if he had had time. "And what is the trouble?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, I've just been ordered by the Queen of Hearts to get up a tea party right away for Alice, who is expected any minute," went on the Hatter. "And here it is 10 o'clock in the morning, and the tea's at 5, and I haven't even started."

"You have lots of time," said Uncle Wiggily. "Hours and hours!"

"Yes, but I'm in a hurry," cried the Hatter. "Don't mind me, but I'm as mad as mad as—"

How to Look Years Less Than Your Age

The most aged face will look years younger after the use of ordinary mercurial wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable substance, because of its peculiar absorbent power, actually removes the thin veil of faded or withered outer epidermis, a little at a time. Gradually the fresher, more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hygienic one, an entirely natural complexion is acquired—quite different from the artificial complexion which appears anything but girlish, though often bearing painful evidence of childlessness. An ounce of mercurial wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed morning with warm water.

To eradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows, make a wash lotion by dissolving one ounce of powdered alumina in one half pint of water. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly etches all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how coarse, making the skin firm, smooth and young looking.

Dasheen-Chinese Potato

BECAUSE of the scarcity and high price of potatoes the department of agriculture at Washington is endeavoring to introduce the general use of the dasheen, or Chinese potato, which is grown in California and the south. It tastes slightly like chestnuts and may be cooked in the same way as the ordinary potato. To bake them, wash the dasheens well, taking care that they are perfectly free from dirt dry them in a cloth.

AMERICA WILLING TO PAY PRICE OF WAR, SAYS LANSING

Princeton, N. J., June 15.—Secretary of State Lansing declared in a graduation address at Princeton university that America is ready to pay the cost of war and is ready to pay it in order to secure the world triumph of democracy over absolutism.

HOROSCOPE

Tuesday, June 19, 1917.

STROLOGERS read this as rather a fortunate day. Neptune, Jupiter, and Saturn are all in benefic aspect, although their influence is not strong.

The New Moon of this date is a partial eclipse of the Sun. Falling in the third decan of the sign of Gemini it is supposed to presage the death of a ruler or king. Mercury, ruler of the eclipse, is conjoined with Mars, an evil omen of legal and religious troubles, libel, slander, fraud, and forgery.

SMELTERMEN IN UTAH TO REMAIN ON STRIKE

Tooele, Utah, June 15.—The striking workers at the Tooele plant of the International Smelting company did not return to work this morning, but at a meeting this evening, labor commissioner William Knauer will present a plan which is expected to dispose of the trouble.

The state officials have been in communication with the department of labor in Washington in an effort to settle the differences between the men and the company. The workers expressed themselves as hopeful that they had least a portion of their demands would be granted.

It is a most fortunate rule for persons past middle life, and astrologers promise that they will have new chances in business and public affairs. Again increase in the number of deaths among the old and those who have held highest places in the country is predicted. Before universal peace has been attained all who have enjoyed the plaudits of the world will have made way for the new generation.

The rapid growth of the true democratic spirit will manifest itself in an extraordinary manner in the United States in more than one event, it is prophesied.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect a successful year. Young girls will have offers of marriage. Children born on this day should be named after the old and those who have enjoyed the plaudits of the world will have made way for the new generation.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

By DAISY DEAN

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S latest comedy, "The Immigrant," is said to be one of the cleverest things he has ever done. It leads the comedian through a series of side-splitting episodes, and winds up in a whirlwind of merriment in which the entire company, brought into the scene, takes part. Edna Purviance, the clever leading young woman, is again to the fore with plenty of fast action as the daughter of an immigrant.

Some of the scenes were taken on shipboard. It was while making one of these that Charlie narrowly escaped serious injury through the falling of a heavy tackle block from the rigging overhead.

ALL SORTS OF THINGS

Carmel Meyers announces that she is engaged to Universal for two years and will appear in feature pictures.

Doris Kenyon has now been seen on Broadway in a new motor sedan. It's maroon colored.

"The Brand of Satan" is about a young and brilliant criminal prosecutor in Paris who is occasionally seized with a mania that impels him to commit felonies. Montagu Love stars. Evelyn Greely and Gerda Holmes are the feminine leads.

"Redemption," starring Evelyn Nesbit Thaw in an adaptation of her own life story, will remain in New York a month, two weeks longer than expected.

In connection with the Blackwell road Blackwell divorce and alimony suit it comes out that Charlie considers his popularity is waning.

Tommy Meighan has put aside the thermometer with which he so skillfully took the temperature of Pauline Frederick and is now being varied by a young girl named Evelyn Greely.

Chicago's sky line along Michigan avenue will appear, it is said, for the first time, taken from one of the towers of the new skyscraper in coming Selig picture, "The City of Purple Dreams."

The recent marriage of Doris Pawn of Fox to Rex Ingram, Universal director, is an item of interest. Just for the fun of it, the couple eloped.

A vacation in the California mountains is something that Mary Pickford has promised herself upon completion of "The Little American." Miss Pickford last week donated an ambulance to the Red Cross in Los Angeles.

Late news of Tyrone Power is the fact that he has just signed a contract with the Marine Film company of Los Angeles.

Anna Little has been engaged to play opposite Harold Lockwood in his next picture.

The Hands.

WOMEN who spend much time over their complexion rarely think to keep their hands in as good condition as their faces. Yet the hand is a tell tale member, that contributes much to disclosing a woman's age and her social life. White, dainty hands are the attributes of a lady—and this does not mean that pale and useless looking hands are the only desirable and lady like sort. The mid Victorian belle had small white hands, but she rarely learned to make them helpful. The ideal hand is white and slender, yet possessing a certain amount of strength and capability.

And every woman can have such hands unless she is actually deformed. Size matters little. Large hands can be made to look small by wearing large sleeves or frills that hide them. But the skin of the hands should be smooth and clear, not dead white, but not red.

The way to keep them nice looking is simple enough. They must be protected when working—rubber gloves and dish mops to be used for washing dishes, rubber gloves and dish mops to be used for scrubbing, old loose gloves for general household and gardening work, and for work that will soil or spoil the texture of the skin. Many women claim that gloves interfere with their work, but it's really only a matter of getting used to working so.

Then the hands should be rubbed with cold cream. After exposure to working, when the skin is dry, or just before retiring at night. They should be carefully massaged for a few moments, and the surplus cream wiped off.

Lemon juice, rubbed over the hands and then washed off with cool water, stains and bleaches the skin free of freckles. Rose water and glycerine is also a good lotion for the skin.

THIS MEDICINE WOMEN VALUE

Positively Relieves the Suffering.

More Convincing Proof.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was first introduced its curative powers were doubted and had to be proved. But the proof came, and the whole country. Now that hundreds of thousands of women have experienced the most beneficial effects from its use its value has become generally recognized and it is now the standard medicine for women's ills.

The following letter is only one of the thousands on our files. "I cannot feel that I have done my duty until I tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles so I could hardly drag around and do my work. I was very nervous, and had dizzy spells, heat flashes, and headaches until life was a burden. My husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon began to improve. I continued its use and am now free from all pains and aches that made life a burden. You may use this letter in any way you like for I want the world to know what a grand medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is."

HOISTS TO 20 LBS.; FEELS LIKE BOY

By DAISY DEAN

Was on verge of physical breakdown when he began taking Tanlac.

"A few bottles of Tanlac have actually increased my weight twenty pounds and put me on my feet in as good condition as when I was a sixteen year old boy," said Luke J. Schuler, a popular comedian at the Houston Electric Line, residing at 2314 Congress avenue, Houston, Texas, recently.

"Before I took Tanlac," he continued, "my health was simply going to pieces. I was almost a nervous wreck and my stomach was on the verge of a physical breakdown. My appetite was so poor I could hardly eat anything and I was losing weight nearly all the time. I fell off in weight and got so weak and worn-out I often had to lay off from my work."

"I had intense pains in the pit of my stomach and the gas that formed after eating kept me in misery nearly all the time. I felt off in weight and got so weak and worn-out I often had to lay off from my work."
